July 1, 1971 - November 7, 2024

Celebration of Life
In Loving Memory of

Demetrius “Pepie” White

Demetrius Tremont White, affectionately known as “Pepie,” was born in Salisbury, Maryland on July 1, 1971 to Alonzo White and the late Reverend Clarinda White. He departed life peacefully on Thursday, November 7, 2024.

Pepie received his formal education in the Wicomico County School System.

His early Christian education training took place at St. James AME Zion Church in Salisbury, Maryland and Grace United Methodist Church in Venton, Maryland.

Pepie had a good heart. He loved people and being able to share his sense of humor. No dull moments were to be had around him. A true jokester! He loved cooking (thought he was a chef). He also had an entrepreneurial spirit.

Pepie leaves to cherish precious memories: his father, Alonzo (Dickie) White; the love of his life, his only child, De’Lecia Ellis; his flowers, Renee (Lisa) and Sonya (Boobie) Jones, Nykeba (Nug) and Ametra (Mi-Mi) White (Pearl) and bonus sister, Dr. Nicole Gale; bonus brother Tyree Showell, Sr.; nieces, Jenea Onley and Kaliyah Russell; nephews, James Onley III, Tyree Showell, Jr., Keyon Showell and Premiere Garrison; one great aunt, Reverend Gloria Taylor Lewis; aunts, Ruthanne Jones, Elsie White, Wanda Cotton, Thelma Orr, Danita Smith, Lazette and Renata Young and Genene McGlotten; bonus aunts, Donna (Phil) White and Dr. Francine Conway Hayes; uncles, Allen and Oscar Price; three god children; a special friend, Rysheka Dotson and a host of other family and friends.

Pepie was preceded in death by his loving and devoted mother, Reverend Clarinda "Penny" White, his brother, Keyon White, grandparents, Shellie and Colon White, Christine (Mom Tine) Young, Allen (Buddy) Price, great grandparents and host of aunts, uncles, relatives and friends.
