

Demita Jo Fletcher

February 17, 1965 - December 21, 2020

Demita Joe Fletcher, also known as DEE DEE, was born on Wednesday, February 17, 1965, to the late James Henry Mcglotten & Joycetine Fletcher. Dee Dee a long time resident of Ellendale, DE, departed this life on Tuesday, December 21, 2020, peacefully and at home with her family. At the time of her departure, the spiritual song that was playing was “My Soul Is Anchored” by Marvin Sapp.

Dee Dee graduated from Howard T. Ennis in Georgetown DE, in 1986. She also worked at Kent Sussex Industries in Milford, DE, in 1989. Dee Dee devoted herself to the Royal Kiddie Kingdom Daycare by helping her sister, Jamesnetta McGlotten.

Dee Dee was jack-of-all-trades. She was a sister and a mom and always paid attention to every child that she knew. Sometimes she would tell them “Get Out My Face with Your Ugly Self,” that is how we develop ugly when she would see you. Dee Dee played the role of being a housewife by sweeping the floors, washing and folding clothes, and also putting them away. she loved being the boss.

Demita “Dee Dee” Fletcher McGlotten was our beautiful sister. was the oldest of five siblings. Every room Dee Dee entered ,she lit up the room with her smile and her bossiness, such as, (IM GROWN AND GET OUT MY FACE

AND I AM SOMEBODY). The last three years, Dee Dee became sick with dementia, but she knew that the church was her place of peace, health, and love. She loved the Lord all her life she knew when to give God glory and praise with her dancing and her shouting.

The scripture says, “train up a child in the way that they should go”, and no matter what Dee Dee’s illness was or what she was going through she knew to look to the hills which cometh your help, your help comes from the lord and she sacrificed her praise.

Demita “Dee Dee Fletcher McGlotten was proceeded in death by her father, James Henry McGlotten; mother, Joycetine Fletcher; grandmother Ester Richardson; great-great-grandmother, Viola West (Hoarse) and godmother, Geraldine Mosley; niece/sister Sharday L McGlotten.

Dee Dee leaves to cherish her memories, sisters, Jamesnetta McGlotten and Linda McGlotten; brother, Samuel McGlotten; nephews/brothers Reginald McGlotten and Darius McGlotten; goddaughter who she raised, Devlona Mosley who resides in Ellendale DE; and a host of nieces and nephews.
