“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ Words cannot express my deep sorrow for your loss. Death is our greatest enemy and none of us can out run it. It is no doubt that Niecy saw hope in the Lord's Prayer. That is why she loved it so. Under that wonderful Kingdom that Jesus taught us to pray for (Matt. 6:9,10), death will be completed erased. (1 Cor. 15:26) Also: "Many of those asleep in the dust of the earth will awake up." (Daniel 12:2) May these promises that will be fulfilled bring you a measure of comfort.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the passing of your loved one. I hope you will find comfort from the Scriptures and the resurrection hope(Acts 24:15)when those who have fallen asleep in death, will be restored back to life with the hope of eternal life on the renewed Paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Until that blessing unfolds and you are reunited with you loved one again, may GOD(Psalms 83:18)grant you peace and comfort now during this time of sorrow.-Matthew 5:4.
