“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ I can't say that I know how you feel at this time and I don't know your pain, but the Bible recommends, " Rejoice with those who rejoice and weep with people who weep “,so until your tears turn into joy, for this reason; I would like to extend my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one.-Romans 12:15. I would also like to share my belief on the resurrection hope with you(Acts 24:15). Soon Jesus will fulfill God's will on earth, by raising up and restoring back to life, those who are now sleeping in death; with the wonderful prospect of living forever on the restored Paradise earth, where sickness and death will no longer plague mankind.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Until that blessing unfolds and you share in the reunion with your deceased loved one; may GOD(Psalms 83:18) grant your family peace and comfort, during this grievous time.-Isaiah 66:13.

“ Dear Family, sending you my condolence by letting you know my prayers and thoughts are with you. You can look forward to a time when there will be no more sickness or death. We have the hope of seeing in the future what is mentioned in the scripture at ISAIAH 33:24, No resident will say: "I am sick." The people that are dwelling in the land will be those pardoned for their error.

“ TO THE WILLIAMS FAMILY: It is my sincere desire that reflecting on times spent with Dennise gives you fond memories that will lift your spirits. Almighty God is aware of your pain. "He heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds." Psalms 147:3 He also promises: "Many of those asleep in the dust of the earth will wake up..." Daniel 12:2 May meditating on this wonderful future blessing bring you comfort during this most grievous time. Please accept my deepest sympathy.
