“ I am sorry for your loss. Our loving Creator never intended for us to die and have to endure such pain as we do when we lose a loved one. (Ezekiel 18:32). As the God and Father of tender mercies, He wants you to find comfort in Him through prayer.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ Dear Family,
If you should ever need us, please don't hesitate to call us. You all are like family and we are hurting too. Remember earth has no sorrow that heaven can not heal. Notta is resting with God, and is suffering no more. Please look to the hills from whence comets your help. We are praying for all of you especially, Dominique, the boys, parents and siblings.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God.

As recorded in the Bible, God’s only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It’s a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).

My wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
