

De'Ongalo Lamon Snead

April 26, 1976 - January 31, 2019

Obituary

De'Ongalo Lamon Snead, Sr. was born on April 26, 1976 in Salisbury, Maryland to Mary Ellen Mumford and Curtis Willy Johnson, Jr.

De'Ongalo graduated from Wicomico High School in 1994. He was on the wrestling team in high school. De'Ongalo worked many jobs over his lifetime, but his most recent job was at the Brass Balls Saloon as a cook. De'Ongalo was a loving father of three children whom he shared with Marie Jones.

"Dee", as he was affectionately known, was always the life of the party. He was very funny and always joking or had a story to tell. He had a silly nickname for everyone and always kept the biggest smile. Anyone who ever met Dee loved him immediately. Dee's favorite hobbies included watching wrestling, boxing, and football and hosting watch parties for big events. His favorite football team was the New England Patriots and he was a diehard Tom Brady fan. Dee especially loved being on the water fishing with his brother Donta and late best friend Poncho. Dee loved kids and he would always make up imaginative stories that all of us believed.

God received De'Ongalo on Thursday, January 31, 2019. He was preceded in death by his maternal grandma and grandfather, Ella Mae Snead and Theodore Snead, Sr., his stepfather, John L. Mumford III and his aunt Diane Snead.

He is survived by: his paternal grandparents, Curtis Johnson, Sr. and Lillian Johnson; four aunts, Aletta Farrington, Cheryl Johnson, Bernetta White and Peggy Snead; one uncle, Arie Johnson; three brothers and two sisters-in-law, Donta Snead (Brenna), Maurice Johnson (Malinda) and Curtis Johnson III; three children, James Brumskin, Jr, Me'Osha Jones and De'Ongalo Snead, Jr.; a special brother, Douglas Crosswell; three special sisters, Antionette Hayes, Tyshonda Harmon-Westcott and Lakisha Snead-Showell and a host of uncles, aunts, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Lovingly Submitted,

“ To the family I want to tell you my heart breaks with you and for you. I have been blessed to be friends with d and Dante for close to 30 years and I can truly say my life was made better by them being part of it. So many memories I wish we were making more. Rest easy Dee I love you. Jeremy Smart and family

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."
