

Dionne Jermaine Evans

November 13, 1982 - December 31, 2021

Dionne Jermaine “Deedy” Evans, son of Augustina Magee and Troy D. Hill, was born on November 13, 1982, at Nanticoke Hospital, in Seaford, Delaware. He departed this life on December 30, 2021, at the age of 39 years young.

Dionne received his early education at Laurel Elementary School and graduated from Laurel High School, Laurel, Delaware. Dionne began working at the age of 14, and took great pride in being independent and making his “coins”, as he would say. His pleasant personality led him to work in the restaurant/hospitality industry for most of his adult life. His most recent employment was at IHOP.

Dionne had a huge heart and a strong will. He was a social butterfly, who had a deep love for others. He loved unconditionally but was also very outspoken. Dionne loved to sing and would blow you away when he sang Karaoke. He enjoyed cooking and would sometimes sell dinners for all to taste. Most importantly, Dionne loved his family! He loved to entertain, have fun and just spend quality time with his family and friends. Dionne would help anyone in need. He was a kind, fun-loving gentle spirit, whom will be greatly missed.

Dionne was preceded in death by his maternal grandfather, Augustus H. Evans, Sr.; paternal grandmother, Mary V. Hill; paternal grandfather, William R.

L. Hill, Sr.; and stepfather, Anthony “Tony” Magee.

Dionne leaves to mourn, yet cherish his memory, mother, Augustina “Tina” Magee’ father, Troy D. Hill; brother, Brock Hill; sister, Shatoni “Candy” Hill; maternal grandmother, Ollie Blackwell; maternal aunt, Lisa Evans; maternal uncles, Vernon Brown, August Evans, Jr., Alan Evans and Alex Justice; paternal aunts, Vonderlear “Vondy” Jackson, Sharon “Sharony” Hill, Tussia “Tuss” Hill and Cathy Polk; paternal uncles, Robert “Bobby” Pinder and William R. L. “Flip” Hill, Jr.; nieces and nephews, cousins and a host of friends.
