“ Dixie, You will never know what impact you had on me you were such a strong willed woman and you taught me a alot in the time i spent with you. I could never thank you enough for being there for me in the hardest time of my life when i needed someone to talk to you were a phone call away and some how i would be laughing by the end of those phone calls. You always knew how to make me laugh you were such a good person with a great heart. I have some unforgettable memories of you that i will hold dear in my heart and all the advice and words of wisdom you have shared will never be forgotten. I can't beleive you are gone but you will always have a special place in my heart and there wont be a day gone by that i dont think of you. You will be missed so much. “ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy to mankind and our loving creator promises to remove death, sickness and pain forever. (Revelations 21:3&4) Also, at John 5:28&29 the bible tells us that we have a chance to be reunited with our loved ones again. Please take comfort in the scriptures in your time of grief and may your entire family be strengthened and blessed.

“ I am sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. Words don't always ease the pain when you are grieving the death of a loved one, but I hope you will find comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection hope(Acts 24:15)when he will raise up all those who are now sleeping in death; restoring them back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth(John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43) what a wonderful blessing to look forward too. Until then, may the Most High God(Psalm 83:18) grant you peace and comfort during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.
