

Dolores Virginia Morton

March 22, 1933 - September 25, 2021

Dolores' Journey

Dolores Virginia Morton, at the age of eighty-eight (88), departed this life on Saturday, September 25, 2021. Born on March 22, 1933 in Farmville, Virginia, she was the beloved daughter of the late Ches Hurt and Mary Evans.

Dolores worked for the Campbell Soup Company for a few years. She also worked for Swift processing plant, which later became Perdue processing plant, from where she retired.

Once she retired from Perdue, Dolores started working for SHORE UP! Inc. as a home health aide. Her responsibilities included providing care for the disabled and senior citizens.

As a member of Mills Memorial Baptist Temple in Salisbury, Maryland, Dolores was affiliated with the Outreach Ministry. She also had an affiliation with the NAACP in Salisbury, Maryland. In her spare time, Dolores loved listening to gospel music, reading and she especially loved to cook.

Cherished memories of her life will be treasured by: her five children, Larry Hines of Washington, DC, Ronald Hines (Christine) of Sumter, South Carolina, Gilbert Hines (Sylvia) of Jamaica-Queens, New York, Chiquita Morton of Salisbury, Maryland and Sonja Morton (Skip Brown, her significant other) of Fruitland Maryland; grandchildren, great grandchildren; great-great grand children and a host of other relatives and friends.

Dolores was preceded in death by her husband, Fred. J. Morton, granddaughter, Tekeisha "Chelle" Long, grandson, Wayne Raynor and great granddaughter, Tyra Long.
