

Donald Enormous Butler Sr.

January 13, 1948 - May 23, 2017

Donald Enormous Butler, Sr. was the son of Aljanette Butler Perry of Vienna, Maryland and the late Clifford Creighton, Sr. Born in Cambridge, Maryland on January 13, 1948, he peacefully departed from his life on this earth on Tuesday, May 23, 2017 at home.

Donald received his formal education in the public schools of Dorchester County, Maryland. He graduated from Mace's Lane High School in Cambridge, Maryland in 1966. As a teenager, he worked in the fields for Alvin Pinder. When he became an adult, Donald was employed by Campbell Soup of Salisbury, Maryland for several years, but a majority of his career was spent working at Delmarva Power of Salisbury, Maryland. He worked over 40 years at this location, working several different positions from a lineman, to a truck driver, and other general labor positions. His last position, which was also his favorite, was in parts and service. Donald retired in April of 2016.

While Donald was growing up, the radio was very popular because televisions weren't affordable for all families. They spent a great deal of time listening to music and the news. Donald enjoyed sports and sporting events. He loved participating in basketball games, football, horseshoes, marbles and other games.

Donald had a heart of gold. He was person a who was always willing to help others, either from his pockets or by lending a hand. Donald's leisure time was spent with family – always with nephews, nieces, grandchildren, or other extended family/friends. He especially enjoyed his base station (CB/Radio) where he talked to people on the airways across the United States. His CB handle was Fifteen, Five (15-5). Anyone who was close to him knew he would spend countless hours with his hobby. He was also passionate about Hot Rods. The last one he owned was a 1965 Chevrolet Stepside Pickup, and it was a beauty.

Donald leaves to cherish loving memories with: his mother, Aljanette Butler Perry of Vienna, Maryland; his sisters, Romonia Butler of Lewiston, North Carolina, Vernita Butler of Delmar, Delaware, Gineene Williams of Vienna, Maryland, Catrina Creighton of Hurlock, Maryland and Cathleen Creighton of Delmar, Delaware; two brothers, Clifford Creighton, Jr. of California and Adrian “Tony” Creighton of Virginia Beach, Virginia; an ex-wife of 30 years, Thelma Butler; two special sons, Tony Jones and Robert Butler; a godson, Timothy Sykes; five grandchildren, LaTerra Wise, Tyler Jones, Takira Butler, Tachina Butler and Jabraye Walker all of Salisbury, Maryland. Donald also leaves eight great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other extended family.

The loved ones who preceded Donald in death include: his father, Clifford Creighton, Sr., a maternal great-grandmother, Mary Carr, maternal grandparents, William and Emma Butler; paternal grandmother, Nettie Creighton Harrison; a stepfather, Sherwood Perry; a sister, Vattisee Butler West; two uncles, Levin and Webster Butler and two nephews, Anthony D. Butler and Charles A. Williams, Jr.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I am sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. I hope the family will find some comfort and strength in Jesus promise of the earthly resurrection(Acts 24:15)and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will mourn the death of a loved one.-Revelation 21:3,4;John 5:28,29;Luke 23:43. may GOD(Psalms 83:18)grant you peace and comfort now, during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. At difficult times like this we realize how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). As your family and friends comfort one another, as a neighbor please also be comforted by the sure hope the Bible gives us for all those who have died (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). As recorded in the Bible, Jesus promised that one day he was going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). That is why he encourages all of us to exercise faith in that promise, the life that Jesus gave in our behalf, and be blessed as we see that promise fulfilled (John 11:25; 3:16). The Bible makes it clear that death is an "enemy" not only to mankind, but also to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is also why God promises to remove forever all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and death that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10,11,29). At that time soon, as the Bible indicates, both the living and the dead who are brought back to life will enjoy life, everlasting life, as God originally purposed for this earth thousands of years ago in the Garden of Eden (Genesis 1:28; Jeremiah 29:11). What a glorious day that will be for mankind who are doing what God asks of us, namely that we simply do His Will, not our own (1 John 2:17; 5:3; Proverbs 3:5,6). Please read and meditate on all these scriptures in your Bible and be comforted and blessed (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Please accept my deepest sympathy during your time of grief. Death is an enemy to us all. The bible tells us that soon Almighty God is going to remove death, sickness and pain. (Revelation 21:4) Also at Acts 24:15 it tells us that the dead will be resurrected. Please take comfort in the bible during this most difficult time and may the God of comfort grant your entire family peace.
