

Donald Lee Kennedy Jr.

June 10, 1987 - May 9, 2020

Donald Lee Kennedy, Jr, affectionately known as “D.J”, passed away on May 9, 2020. Donald was the son of Teressa Renietta Taylor and Donald Lee Kennedy, Sr., born at Union Hospital, in Elkton, Maryland, on June 22, 1987.

Donald was educated in the Kent County Public School system. He graduated from Kent County High School, in 2005. After graduation, Donald worked for Mr. Brice as a construction worker. He also had several part-time jobs.

Donald was a member of People’s New Hope Center, in Denton Maryland, where the pastor is C.A. Savoy.

A few years later, Donald moved to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, with his cousin and continued his employment in construction. Donald loved to draw. He could draw anything and was very good at it. He enrolled in the Art Institute of Philadelphia. He also enjoyed boxing. When Donald returned to Cambridge, Maryland, he joined the Muslim faith. Donald remained in Cambridge until his passing.

Donald was a kind, person and was willing to help anyone. He loved our family cookouts, especially Granny’s Gingerbread. We will miss him so much.

Donald was preceded in death by his mother, Teressa Renietta Taylor and his sister, Alyssa Monique Kennedy.

Donald leaves to cherish his memory, his grandmother, Nadine Hodges of PA; great-grandmother, Elnora E. Brown of Worton, MD; three aunts, Vanolia Brown of Chestertown, MD, Sherele Brown of Worton, MD and Bridget Hull of Sharon Hill, PA; four uncles, Weldon Brown, of Worton, MD, Rev. Dr. Alvin A. Brown of Chester, PA, Dana Kennedy and Jeffrey Kennedy both Pondtown, MD; one sister, LaShay Kennedy of Dover, DE; his special friend, Mea Pinkett; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and others who loved D.J.
