

Donnie Lee Gibbs

June 4, 1958 - October 29, 2020

Donnie Lee Gibbs, “Pete” son of the late George and Sudie Gibbs, was born June 4, 1958 in Milford, Delaware. He passed October 29, 2020, at the home of his, sister, Ruby Queer.

Pete attended school in Bridgeville, Delaware. He worked many years for Perdue Farms, as a chicken catcher and for Mountaire Farms. His last job was with Bowdens Lawn Care.

Pete had many nicknames, starting with "Pistol Pete", shooting nothing but his mouth, “Uncle Pete”, “Uncle Legs”, “Sneaky Pete” and “Crooked Legs”. The last time he talked to his niece, Quie, of Jacksonville, Florida, he was just "Uncle Broke". There was another nickname, but we won't mention it at this time!

Pete was determined to stay busy. His oldest sister caught him with a rake in his hand. We made him go inside. Later that evening, he walked into the kitchen and asked for cards. He wanted to play spades, so we did. If you knew Pete, you may have seen him looking for turtles along some ditch, picking up cans and junk to make a few dollars. He was hardly ever seen without a toothpick in his mouth. About two weeks before he passed, Pete accepted God into his life.

Pete was preceded in death by his parents, as well as four brothers, Paul Gibbs, Emerson Midgette, John L. Gibbs and in May 2020, his brother, George D. Gibbs, of Charleston, South Carolina.

Donnie leaves to cherish his memories and mourn his passing, one daughter, Satkia Molock of Laurel, DE; nine siblings, Georgia Kelly of Millsboro, DE, Ruby Queer (Don) of Seaford, DE, Dorine Harmon of Ellendale, DE, Charles Gibbs (Kaye) of Bridgeville, DE, Mary A. Gibbs of Los Angeles, CA, Elizabeth Coverdale (Larry) of Georgetown, DE, Susie Tolliver (John) of Blades, DE, Ira Gibbs of Richmond, VA and Paula Gibbs of Millsboro, DE; one aunt Dawn Shaw of Engelhard, NC; two uncles, Burnell Gibbs of Georgetown, DE and Eugene Whitfield of Winterville, NC; special mother, Mrs. Olivia Savage; many nieces, nephews and special friends.
