

Doris E. Chapman

September 23, 1943 - June 30, 2018

Doris Chapman, 74, left us on June 30, 2017, with her family by her side, at Kent General Hospital.

Doris was born September 23, 1943 in Dover, Delaware, to Ida Young and Charles Young. She was a graduate from William Henry High School. She later met Wilbert Moore. In 1971, she gave birth to her one and only child, William Chapman. She retired from Playtex Corporation and later worked as a greeter at Johnny Janosik for 10 years.

Her interests included family, playing cards and enjoying her nightly bowl of ice cream. She devoted much of her time to Union Baptist Church. Her charm, laugh and smile could bring joy to anyone's day.

Doris Chapman is survived by her son, William Chapman; granddaughter, LeDaya Chapman; great-granddaughter, Lailah Walker; aunt, Catherine and cousin Donnie.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ So very sorry for your loss. I met Doris in 1970 working at Playtex and we reconnected in 2005 working at Johnny Janosik. She was an amazing lady, strong willed, truthful and caring. May she rest in peace and be free of the illness that took over her body. Her family was her life, especially her granddaughter. Find comfort in all your memories.

“ Dear Family,
Grief can be so hard, may your family find strength in God's promise at (Isaiah 25: 8) that soon "he will swallow up death forever". You have my deepest sympathy.
