

Doris Jacqueline Dickerson

November 24, 1931 - June 21, 2025

Obituary

Doris Jacqueline Dickerson, a beloved mother, grandmother, and foster care provider, was called home by God on Saturday, June 21, 2025, after a short illness at Coastal Hospice. She was the daughter of the late Harriett Ellis and Theodore Parsons.

Doris received her education in the Wicomico County School District. Throughout her life, she dedicated herself to nurturing others, serving as a foster care mother to many children.

She was married to the late Everett "Brooks" Dickerson, who passed away on May 26, 2017, after thirty-six (36) years of marriage. Doris was an active member of New Dimension Church in Salisbury, Maryland. She found joy in reading, traveling, and spending time outdoors in the fresh air.

Doris is survived by: her son, Daniel Dickerson of Eden, Maryland, and one grandson, Demorris Knox. She also leaves behind: two sisters, Betty Ellis and Norma Crockett, both of Salisbury, Maryland; a daughter-in-law, Patricia Wright of Salisbury, Maryland; a special niece, Annett Carr and a special sister-in-law, Sheba Artis.

In addition to her husband, Doris was preceded in death by her son, Clifton E.

Wright.

“ To love you as my sister was a joy, To watch you do unto others to love them,
God took a golden heart. Your wings were Ready but my heart wasn't. ❤️ love your baby sis. Norma
