“ I pray you are surrounded by family and friends during this time of distress. Coping with death of a loved one can be very difficult to deal with, but I pray you will find comfort in God's Word and the resurrection hope for all those who have fallen asleep in death.-Acts 24:15; John 5:28,29. May the God who comfort those who mourn continue to be with the Gibson Family.-Matthew 5:4.
