

Dorothy Mae Ames

May 29, 1925 - December 16, 2012

Dorothy Mae Savage Ames or “ Aunt Dot” as she was affectionately referred to by family and friends came into the world on May 29, 1925 in Accomack County, Virginia. She was the daughter of the late Anna B. Savage and George Savage, Sr. She departed this life on December 16, 2012, at Milford Memorial Hospital in Milford, Delaware.

She attended public school in Accomack County, Virginia. Aunt Dot met and married George Henry Ames in Northampton County, Virginia. In the early fifties, she moved to Rehoboth Beach, Delaware where she loved to care for children in her home. Aunt Dot joined the Soul Saving Station Church of Deliverance in Rehoboth Beach, Delaware, then later on joined Philadelphia Pentecostal Holiness Church, under the leadership of Bishop Major Foster, Sr. in Ellendale, Delaware. She loved to praise the Lord.

She leaves behind to cherish her memories: one sister, Annie S. Stoakley (Henry) of Cheriton, Virginia; two nephews, whom she raised as her own, Kurt Simms (Lillian) and Cletis Simms (Alfreda) both of King Williams, Virginia and a host of nieces, nephews , relatives and friends.

“ *To The Family,
Please accept my condolence. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time.
It mentions a time when all of humankind will have the privilege of reuniting with our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death. Jesus Christ's words at John 5:28, 29 assure us that such an exciting time will definitely take place.
Again, you have my deepest sympathy.*
