“ Extending deepest sympathy to family and friends in this time of sorrow. Please find comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28,29) Until that blessed day, may Jehovah, the God of all comfort, grant you peace while many fond memories warm your hearts.

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathies. My heart goes out to the family. Death is something we will never get use to. In fact, God's Word refers to death as an enemy (1 Corinthians 15:26). It is comforting to know that very soon our loving Heavenly Father, Jehovah, will remove death once and for all and give us the opportunity to see our loved ones again here on the earth.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. All of us have experienced the pain of death in some way sad to say. And, so, at difficult times like this we are confronted with the stark reality of how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). So, we send this condolence to you with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has comforted us with what the Bible reveals to us about good news from Almighty God. As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28,29). He further encourages all of us to exercise faith in that promise and be blessed as we see that promise fulfilled (John 11:25; 3:16). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason as well as others, He promises to remove forever all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10,11,29). As the Bible tells us, one day both the living and the dead who are brought back to life will enjoy life, everlasting life, as God originally purposed for this earth thousands of years ago in the Garden of Eden (Genesis 1:28; Jeremiah 29:11). Truly, what a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality for God cannot lie (Titus 1:2). All that He asks of us is that we simply do His will and not our own (1 John 2:17; Proverbs 3:5,6). It is our hope that you not take our word for what has been written; but that you take a moment to read and meditate on all these referenced scriptures and be comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are sincerely with all of you.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. The bible gives us hope of being reunited with our loved ones again during the resurrection of the dead. (John 5:28&29) Also, the bible tells us that in the near future death, tears and pain will be removed. (Revelation 21:4) Please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief and may the God of all comfort grant your entire family peace.

“ To the family,

My deepest condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. Losing someone you hold dear to your heart is very difficult, so please continue to rely upon God, family and friends especially on those difficult days. May you also find the needed comfort from the words at Psalm 34:18.
