Obituary

Dorothy Mae Kellam-Lee, known to her family as “Dort,” the devoted wife of Wilmer Lee, Jr. and beloved daughter of Corrine Smith-Kellam and the late Mitchell Kellam, was born on July 28, 1957 in Exmore, Virginia. On Tuesday, August 22, 2017, it was God’s divine plan to end her earthly journey.

Dort attended the public schools of Northampton County, Virginia. At an early age, she joined Ebenezer Baptist Church in Wardtown, Virginia. She was an amazing house wife. She enjoyed decorating and painting. She could do wonders with a can of paint! Dort was a very humble person. She was kind, loving and so sweet. When Dort stepped out the house, she was dressed from head to toe.

Dort leaves to cherish fond memories: her husband of 37 years, Wilmer Lee, Jr.; 2 precious sons, Donnell (Tricia) Lee and Wilmer (Rebekah) Lee III; 5 grandchildren, Donnell, Deanna, Donavin, Cameron and Brian; 3 special great nephews that she considered as her sons, Clarence Giddens, Jr. Terrence Giddens and Jaquan Kellam; a beautiful mother, Corrine Smith Kellam; 6 wonderful brothers, James (Helen) Kellam, Clarence (Johanna) Kellam, Ricky (Carrie) Kellam, Edward (Alise) Kellam, Johnny Kellam and Albert Kellam; 3 loving sisters, Irene Kellam, Catherine Giddens and Corrine (Jerry) Collins and 2 Aunts, Josephine and Helen. Dort considered all her nieces and nephews as her own children and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends will remember her in love.

Dort was preceded in death by her father, Michell Kellam and siblings; William and Ruth Kellam.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy to us all, but Almighty God is going to remove death, tears, mourning and pain in the near future. (Revelation 21:4) Please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief, and may the God of all comfort grant your entire family peace.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. All of us have experienced the pain of death in some way sad to say. And, so, at difficult times like this we are confronted with the stark reality of how precious and fragile life can sure be (James 4:14). So, my wife and I send this condolence to you with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has comforted us with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty god. Please be assured that we are in no way trying to impose our faith on you; but we sincerely just want to extend comfort to you during your grief (Proverbs 17:17).

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28,29; 11:43, 44). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason as well as others, God promises to remove FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).

It is our hope that you NOT take our word for what we've written to you in this condolence; but that you please take a moment to read and meditate on all these referenced scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16). My wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ I would like to offer my sincere condolences for your loss. In such difficult time, many families appreciate the comfort offered by the Bible of the time when no one will lose a loved one in death and we will be able to enjoy life again with our loved one. (Isaiah 41:10; Revelation 21:3,4) I hope these thoughts will comfort you also
