

Dorothy M. Odom

November 1, 1932 - February 24, 2014

Dorothy Mae Odom, age 81, was born to the late Tom Wiggins and Bessie Wiggins on November 1, 1932. Dorothy was one of nine children born in Enfield, N.C. Dorothy fell asleep in death on February 23, 2014.

Dorothy was a faithful and loyal servant to Jehovah. She was truthful, she never gave her opinion but she always referred to the bible. She was great at reasoning from the scriptures and used illustrations to cover a point. Dorothy looked forward to the day we all will live forever in peace and unity. And we all look forward to the time she will rise again and live out what she believed.

Dorothy is survived by her loving children, Vanessa (Rodney) Foxe, and Constance Wilkins; her grandsons, Isaac C. McKinney and Curtis M. Wilkins; her great-granddaughter, Alonna K. Wilkins; her sister, Rosa Mae Peterson; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

“ I am sorry for the passing of your loved one; please accept my sincere sympathy. While you are grieving your loss, I hope you can find some comfort in Jesus’ promise of the resurrection(Acts 24:15) when those who have fallen asleep in death, will be raised up and restored back to life, with the hope of eternal life, on the renewed Paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Until that blessed promise is fulfilled and you are reunited with your loved one again, may GOD(Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort now, during this time of sorrow.-Matthew 5:4.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Having lost ones in death who were very dear to me, I know there are no words that can truly ease your pain at this time. However, may knowing that others care being you a measure of comfort. At Daniel 12:2 we are told: "Many of those asleep in the dust of the earth will wake up." As dead loved ones are called forth from their graves, the earth will be filled with joy, joy for those being resurrected and joy for those who are there to welcome them back. (Mark 5:39-422 and Rev. 21:13. May meditating on this future miracle bring you comfort.

“ Dear Odom Family:

I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. Death is indeed an uncomfortable subject. Many people prefer not to talk about it. But sooner or later we must confront it. Nothing can fully prepare us for the loss of our loved one. However, please take comfort in knowing that God sees your tears and feels your pain. In so doing very soon he will eradicate sickness and death very soon from off the face of the earth. As brought out at 1 Corinthians 15:26 , "The last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." Isn't that comforting to know? This will be accomplished only by means of God's Kingdom in which we pray for in the Lord's Prayer as found at Matthew 6:9,10. Once more I am so sorry for your loss. May each day get a little easier for your family.

Sincerely,

Nancy - February 24, 2014 at 12:00 AM
