DOROTHY SALTER'S OBITUARY

Dorothy Louise Salter (Dot) was born on October 21, 1929 in Glennville, Georgia to the late Clarence and Eliza Hagans. She departed her life on September 23, 2023.

Dorothy attended school in Tattnall County, Georgia during the mid to late 1930's and 1940's.

She grew up with four siblings—John D. Hagans (D.), Henry L. Hagans (D.) Meldene Byrd (D.), and Vera M. Baldwin. Dorothy married the late Willie D. Hutley in 1950 in Bulloch County, Georgia.

In 1968 Dorothy accepted a position with Perdue Farms where she worked for many years until retirement in 1994. After retirement, she remained very busy working for SHORE UP! Inc. as a daycare assistant and ringing the bell during the holidays for the Salvation Army at various establishments. Due to health limitations, Dorothy slowed down from many of her busy activities, but she always loved to cook. She cooked for her family, friends and her church. She attended church at Bethel Progressive Ministries in Parsonsburg, Maryland for many years.
