

Dorothy Seibel

November 22, 1952 - November 25, 2017

On November 25, 2017 Dorothy “Dot” Seibel passed away after a long battle with cancer. Those who knew Dot are aware of how hard she fought! Dot cared for all and would help anyone. She was always quick with a smile and a laugh. So many cherish the time they had with Dot; beloved wife of Thomas Seibel, beloved mother of Richard B. and Tracy L. McCain; loving grandmother of Joshua McCain, Danielle Ports and Justin Whaley; beloved sister of John “Buzzy” Schwartztrauber and Paul Schwartztrauber, the late Mary Wheat and Grace Stultz; caring aunt and great aunt to a number of nieces and nephews.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy to us all, but Almighty God is going to remove death, sickness and pain in the near future. Please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief and may the God of all comfort grant your entire family peace.

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathies. My heart goes out to the family. Death is something we will never get use to. In fact, God's Word refers to death as an enemy (1 Corinthians 15:26). It is comforting to know that very soon our loving Heavenly Father, Jehovah, will remove death once and for all and give us the opportunity to see our loved ones again here on the earth.

“ Extending deepest sympathy to family and friends in this time of sorrow. Please find comfort in knowing that soon all those in God's memory will hear Jesus' voice and live again. (John 5:28,29) Until that blessed day, may Jehovah, the God of all comfort, grant you peace while many fond memories warm your hearts.

“ I would like to offer my personal condolences to your family. I hope that you will be able find strength in Gods promise at Revelation 21:4 that soon: he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. You are in my thoughts and prayers and once more I am deeply sorry for your familys loss.
