“ My apologies if have this wrong. The Doug Dashield that I knew was an old man, not the young man in this photo. I did not know a young Douglas Dashield. If this is Mr. Doug Dashield who was responsible for the maintenance at Booth Street for the Neighborhood Housing Authority, then that was a great old man who touched my heart many times. As a volunteer at Booth Street doing maintenance repairs with volunteer groups, I worked with Doug for many years and was always in awe of what he could accomplish and the generosity of his heart for so many persons in need. I was amazed at how he would help the elderly with tender care, he would repair apartments after careless people had not respected the property and do so always thinking of the next family who needed a safe, dry, clean apartment. Doug was a joy to work with and was a man of great faith, he was a man who lived his faith. if this is the same old man Doug Dashield then I just want to say that I have been blessed to know him and to share a faith in Jesus Christ with him. We are blessed.

You have the wrong Douglas Dashield. This is my father not the one that worked at the housing authority.
