

Dyann E. White

July 3, 1949 - October 24, 2015

Dyann Elizabeth White, daughter of the late William Eugene Scott and Irene Shirley Truxon, was born on July 3, 1949 in Easton, Maryland. She departed this life on October 24, 2015 in Baltimore, Maryland at the age of 66.

Dyann received her high school diploma from the State of Maryland and pursued higher education at Chesapeake College in the field of Medical Billing and Coding.

Dyann was well-known for her impeccable work ethic; ranging from her demanding, but rewarding career caring for horses, to her retail management experience. A devout Christian, she dedicated countless hours praying for loved ones and thoroughly enjoyed being a blessing to others. Dyann acquired and maintained an extensive collection of beautiful angels and had a passion for the arts. An aspiring author, Dyann was writing an autobiography of her astounding life-experiences, many of which she regularly shared with cherished family and friends. While Dyann was many things to many people, she will be best remembered for her roles as a loving mother, grandmother, sister, and friend.

Dyann was preceded in death by her husband, Ellis Rubin White, Jr. and brother, William Eugene Scott, Jr.

She leaves to cherish her memory five daughters, Tamerida Green of Trappe, Dorothea Scott-Cooper (Scott) of Chestertown, Elisha Scott (Jerome) of Easton, Euricka Pindell (Gordon) of Pasadena, and Latrice James (Kuseybi) of Delaware; one son, Maurice James, Jr. (Takara) of Rock Hall; three sisters, Peggy Smith (Wesley) of Georgia, Patricia Demby (Harry) and Lucretia Anthony (Charles), both of Centreville; a special friend Charles "Pierre" Mackey of Centreville; 16 grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

“ Extending deepest sympathy for your loss. May the GOD of all comfort grant you peace (2 Cor. 1:3,4) while many fond memories of Dyann warm your hearts. We await the day when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out (John 5:28,29). What a blessed day that will be.

“ Dear Family : PSALM 116 : 15 Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints. " GOING HOME " When our days on earth have ended, When the final task is done, We have fought the final battle And the victory is won; We ascend the golden stairway To our everlasting home, Where our eyes behold, with rapture, Jesus sitting on the throne. All our heartaches are forgotten, Gone is misery and pain. In the presence of our Savior Tears will never fall again. Oh, the joy to greet our loved ones Who have parted long ago; And to live with them in glory, Where the love lights always glow. (By Regina Wiencek) Always Cherish the fond memories of your loved one! God is your Comforter!
