“ Litzy and Dave and family, I am deeply saddened to hear of Dylan's passing. I enjoyed knowing him as my student. He was a kind and warm young man and my heart goes out to all of you during this difficult time.

“ I am so sorry for your family's loss. There are no words that I can offer that can really ease or erase your pain. My heart goes out to you in this loss. But God knows, understands, and cares about every part of our (your) hearts. He hears your cries and holds your tears. His Word offers HOPE. He is our Hope. I will continue to pray that your family finds strength in God's Word and a peace that only our loving savior can give. You are loved and thought of often...

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ My heartfelt condolences for the loss of your beloved, Dylan. Please know that Jehovah God and his son Jesus Christ is aware of your pain and they care for you. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) . I pray that you are able to find comfort in God's promise of paradise where there will be no more pain and sorrow (Revelation 21:4,5) and the many wonderful memories of your loved ones becoming a reality in the future resurrection in paradise. (Acts 24:15). Please accept my sincere condolences.

“ My wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. At difficult times like this we realise how precious and fragile life can be. As your family and friends comfort one another, we as neighbors pray you also be comforted by the sure hope the Bible gives us for all those who have died. As recorded in the Bible, Jesus promised that one day he would bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). What a glorious day that will be for mankind who are doing what God asks of us, namely that we simply do His will, not our own (1 John 2:17, Proverbs 3:5, 6). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. It is always sad to lose someone in death, especially someone so young. We are all subjected to death because of the disobedience of Adam and Eve, our first parents. (Romans 5:12) But Almighty God promises that He is going to remove death, sickness and pain in the near future. (Revelation 21:3&4) Please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief and look forward to the time when you can see Dylan again during the resurrection of the dead.(Acts 24:15) Until that time may your entire family be comforted and blessed.
