“*To The Family,
Please accept my condolence. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time. Matthew 22:32, Jesus quoted God as saying: ‘I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.’ Then he continued: ‘He is the God, not of the dead, but of the living.’ I know that those words mean that those retained in God’s memory and will return in the resurrection.”*

“I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event that it's called an enemy in the Bible at I Corinthians 15:26. But God's words in the Bible gives us hope at John 11:25. You can read in your Bibles about the resurrection hope and other promises at Isaiah 25:8,26:19,and Revelation 21:3-5.

“Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. I knew his brother Jake. Please look forward to the time when you can be reunited with him again. John 5:28&29 gives us that hope. Please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief and may your entire family be comforted and blessed at this time.

“ I am sorry for your loss please accept my deepest sympathy. I hope you will find your strength and comfort in Jesus promises of the earthly resurrection(:Acts 24:15) and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will have to mourn the death of a loved one.-Revelation 21:3,4; Luke 23:43. May GOD(Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort now during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ To the Family of Earl Drayton,

Please accept my heartfelt condolences. It is always painful to lose a loved one;

I also have lost many dear ones to death.

God's son Jesus promised a resurrection in John 5:28, 29.

Imagine enjoying life with Earl once again, right here on earth, forever. -Psalm 37:11, 29.

May you find comfort, gain hope at this time, and seek the answer to: 'When will sickness, suffering and death end?'. -Revelation 21:4

Sincerely,

Marlis - June 02, 2014 at 12:00 AM
