

Earl Deshawn Garrison

February 12, 1981 - November 14, 2021

His Life

Earl “Deshawn” Garrison, beloved son of Earl Garrison and the late Kim Goodman, was born on Thursday, February 12, 1981 in Salisbury, Maryland. He passed away peacefully, surrounded by loved ones, at Christiana Hospital in Newark, Delaware, on Sunday, November 14, 2021.

Deshawn, also known as “Cease”, received his GED, Plumber’s certificate and HVAC license through the state of Maryland.

Cease was very athletic and he enjoyed both basketball and football. His favorite team was the Philadelphia Eagles. Cease was very fashionable; you couldn’t tell him nothing when he threw on his fitted hat.

Cease loved his family and children. He was well-known and always smiling, showing off his gold fronts. Always encouraging others, Cease was able to get his point across even though he talked fast. He knew and understood God’s word and didn’t mind sharing the good news with others.

Deshawn was preceded in death by his loving mother, Kim Goodman, maternal grandparents, Petric Handy, Joyce Ann and Daniel Goodman, paternal grandparents, Yvonne Garrison and Earl Noble, nephew, Trey Goodman, Jr. and godmother, Betty Bivens.

Deshawn leaves to cherish lifelong memories: two children, Kara Lane Powell and Jordan Deshawn Murrell; his father, Earl Garrison; one brother, Trey Goodman; one sister Ronshonda and Kris Purnell, Sr.; two nieces, Leah Morris and Miya Laws; three nephews, Kristan "KJ", Kameron, and Karter Purnell; godsisters, Letitia Bivens Gordon, Toya Dixon, Destany Bowen, Keshora Garrison and Carlessa Garrison; goddaughter, Missie Goodman; special friend, Tisha Purnell and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family
