

Earl Marsh Jr.

March 11, 1944 - June 7, 2018

Earl Marsh, Sr., was born in Georgian, Alabama, to Leona Knight Marsh & Columbus Marsh, on March 11, 1944. Earl attended school in Georgian, Alabama. He gave his life to Christ at an early age. He served as an usher in church. Earl worked on the farm most of his young adult life and moved to Lakewood, New Jersey in 1985, where he met the love of his life, Mae E. Wallace. They joined hands together and became one. Earl started his own business as a handy man in construction and landscaping. He moved the family to Dover, Delaware, where he remained until God called him home.

Earl was a good husband, great father & grandfather. He loved his family and was a good provider for his family. He loved playing with the kids especially playing ball with the boys. Earl enjoyed making breakfast for his wife and family and his specialty was making cheese toast. Earl enjoyed riding his lawnmower and taking care of his neighbors lawns, until his health began to fail in 2004. In 2011 he was diagnosed with emphysema, Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease (C.O.P.D.) and bronchitis.

Earl was preceded in death by his parents; four brothers, Willie Marsh, Robert Marsh, Eddie Lee Marsh, and Freddie Lee Marsh; stepdaughter, Mary D. Wallace; and stepson, Anthony J. Wallace.

Earl leaves to cherish his memories, his wife, Mae Marsh; four sons, Earl

Marsh, Jr., and his wife, Jennifer, of Prattville, AL, Earl M. Marsh, and his wife, Lanette, of Dover, DE, Kenosha Daniels of Prattville, AL, and Courtney Moody of Dover, DE; two daughters, Gwendolyn S. Green-Surman, and her husband Daniel and Tara S. “ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."
