

Edd McGintry

March 15, 1950 - February 23, 2018

Obituary

Edd McGintry was born in Frisco City, Alabama but was a native of Salisbury, Maryland. He departed this life on Friday, February 23, 2018 at the Coastal Hospice by the Lake in Salisbury, Maryland at the age of sixty-seven (67).

Edd McGintry was “a people person” who could spark up a conversation with anybody and make them feel like he had known that person for years, even if he just met them. Family gatherings were one of his favorite things. Edd loved his grand and great grand children. His passion was truck driving and a recent love of being an Uber driver. He had a love and kindness for all animals, especially dogs. Edd enjoyed watching movies and was a die hard Baltimore Ravens fan.

Edd is survived by: his loving wife of 30 years, Cynthia; three children, Edd, Jr. (Gina), Felicia and Tonya; three sisters, Betty, Sara (Ellis) and Annie Jean (Richard); one brother, Ronnie (Bertha); father-in-law, William; 4 sisters-in-law, Rose, Beneda, Angela and Peggy (Charles); two brothers-in-law, Monte and Gregory (Valence); 16 grandchildren; 17 great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, friends and family.

Edd was preceded in death by: his parents, Robert McGinnis and Charlie V.

Thomas; stepfather, William Thomas; son, Melvin Johnson; brother, Robert (Ida) McGinnis; mother-in-law, Hazel Horsey; brother-in-law, Jessie Stanley and grandson, William Evans.

Edd's wide variety of knowledge and "stand his ground attitude" will truly be missed.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."42
