

Edith V. Stevens

September 16, 1926 - June 13, 2014

Edith Virginia Stevens was born September 16, 1926 to the late Alma Hackett Mosley and Medford Hutchins. She departed this life on June 13, 2014 at home surrounded by her family.

Edith received her education at the Mt. Zion Church School, the Smyrna School system and Lockerman High School.

Edith was employed by the State of Delaware for 30 years. For most of her life she worked two jobs to ensure her family was adequately cared for. She loved to take care of her plants inside and outside. She loved traveling, reading and loved to watch the Family Feud TV show. She also loved shopping on QVC. Edith could often be heard humming the sounds of a traditional gospel hymn. Edith was our solid foundation on which our hopes and dreams have been and will continue to be realized.

Edith was a devoted member of Mt. Zion Methodist Church - She was President of the Communion Steward and a lay speaker.

She was preceded in death by her son Douglas Stevens and her brother Orville Mosley.

She leaves to cherish her memories three sons, Nathaniel Jr., Thomas, and Larry (Diane); one daughter Cynthia (Kenneth); nine grandchildren, 13 great grandchildren; one sister, Agnes Hutchins; two brothers, William Mosley (Christine) and Leroy Mosley; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and Church family.

“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ I am truly sorry to hear about the loss of your dearly beloved one. There are many words of comfort I would like to extend. However, it has frequently been found that the best source of comfort is found in God's word. There we are told, "He is healing the brokenhearted ones, And is binding up their painful spots." Psalms 147:3 "He will actually swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord will wipe the tears from all faces." Isaiah 25:8. May the hope of being reunited with your deceased loved one bring you a measure of comfort and anticipated joy.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the passing of your love one. I hope you will find comfort from the scriptures, knowing what Jesus says about the hope for those asleep in death. Just imagine seeing your love ones again on the paradise earth. You can read about this hope at Isaiah 25:8.

“ I am sorry for your loss please accept my deepest sympathy. I hope you will find your strength and comfort in Jesus promises of the earthly resurrection (:Acts 24:15) and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will have to mourn the death of a loved one. -Revelation 21:3,4; Luke 23:43. May GOD (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort now during this grievous time. -Matthew 5:4.
