“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ I am sorry for your loss please accept my deepest sympathy. I hope you will find your strength and comfort in Jesus promises of the earthly resurrection(:Acts 24:15) and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will have to mourn the death of a loved one.-Revelation 21:3,4; Luke 23:43. May GOD(Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort now during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ I extend to your family my deepest sympathy regarding your loss. Knowing that others care can be uplifting. Almighty God "is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit." (Psalms 34:18) He also promises "many of those asleep in the dust of the earth will wake up." (Daniel 12:2) May meditating on this wonderful future blessing and what it will mean for your family bring you comfort.
