“ To the family, My sincere condolences in the passing of Mr. Larrimore. Please find comfort in the words of Revelation 21:4, "And he (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.\u201d

“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, \u201cif an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.\u201d Ms Woodson

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.

“ My dear wife and I would like to take this opportunity to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. Because times like this are so difficult to cope with, our hope is to comfort you as we've been comforted when we've lost a loved one. The Bible reveals to us good news from Almighty God about all those who have died. He promises that one day his beloved son, Jesus Christ is going to bring the dead back to life to enjoy life the way God purposed it to be in the beginning (Genesis 1:27, 28). He promises to remove all things that have made life difficult for us, including that enemy death (Revelation 21:3, 4; Psalm 37:9-11). What a glorious day that will surely be! We can trust that this promise from God will be fulfilled, because we know it is impossible for God to lie (Hebrews 6:18). May you be strengthened and comforted with such a hope as we deal with the challenges and difficulties of life right now (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ Dear Family, though your hearts are heavy with pain and sorrow right now, over the loss of your dear loved one, but know that our heavenly Father did not leave you without hope. God did not create mankind to suffer the sting of death. He lovingly provided hope of one day being reunited with our loved ones. Acts 24:15; Revelation 21:4; Hosea 13:14. I sincerely express my deepest sympathy. \t
