

Edward West Jr.

September 1, 1955 - March 18, 2018

Reflection of Life

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.
II Timothy 4:7

On Sunday, March 18, 2018, God, in His infinite wisdom, called to eternal rest our beloved Edward West, Jr. He was born on September 1, 1955 in Accomack County, Virginia to the late Edward West, Sr. and Glorious Mae West. He received his education in the public schools of Accomack County.

Later in life, Edward moved to Ocean City, Maryland where he worked as a Pastry Chef at the Commander Hotel for several years. Upon leaving Ocean City, Maryland, he moved to Elizabeth City, New Jersey, where he worked as a forklift driver at P. Judge and Sons for 13 years. After leaving New Jersey, Edward decided to move back to Virginia.

("West"), as he was affectionately known by his friends, enjoyed playing dominoes. He played dominoes so well they gave him the nickname "Domino King." He enjoyed spending time with family and friends.

In 2003, Edward met Jacqueline Brisco and they were united in Holy Matrimony in 2005.

Edward attended the New Mt. Calvary Baptist Church, where he later joined and became a member of the Male Chorus. Edward loved the Lord. He enjoyed getting up every Sunday morning, ready and willing to go and give God all the praise, until his health began to fail.

Edward leaves to cherish fond memories: his wife of twelve (12) years, Jacqueline West; three sons, Tamaze Brisco and Dominic Brisco, both of Treherneville, Virginia and Akeem Wilson of Selma, Alabama; two daughters, Lawanda Adams and Dominique Wilson, both of Elizabeth, New Jersey; one god daughter, Danielle Walton of Elizabeth, New Jersey; five sisters, Lucille Morrero of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Ann Bogan (Bernard) of Dover, Delaware, Edith Allen and Emma Howard, both of Elizabeth, New Jersey and Dianne Morris of Chester, Pennsylvania; three brothers, Norman West (Sheila) of Wilmington, Delaware and Jeffery and Tyrone Morris, both of Chester, Pennsylvania; one aunt, Alice Kellam of Franktown, Virginia; father-in-law, James Brisco of Exmore, Virginia; seven sisters-in-law; eight brothers-in-law; 11 grandchildren; one great grandchild; 3 special aunts, Sharlene Bisco, Juanita Maddox and Mary Jones; a special cousin, George Watson of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; special friends, Bobby Watson, Roland Smith and Lionel Chandler and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Edward was preceded in death by his parents, one son Eddie and a brother, Edward West.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I would like to offer my personal condolences to the family. I hope that you will be able to find strength in God’s promise at (Revelation 21: 4) that soon “he will wipe out every tear from the eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away”. You are in my prayers.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your recent loss. My heart goes out to you and your family. I have always received comfort from the Bibles’ word at Philipians 4:7 which reads “and the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your heart and your mental powers by means of Christ Jesus”. I hope you can receive comfort from these words as well. Margo Simmons

“ I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. I hope you will find comfort in knowing that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will soon eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when “all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Christ’s] voice and come out”! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that “he will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isa. 25:8) Then, instead of having to “weep with those who weep,” all earth’s inhabitants will “rejoice with those who rejoice.”—Rom. 12:15.
