“ As a volunteer driver for the DAV, I had the pleasure of Edwin's company from time to time, taking him from his home to the Elsmere VA Hospital for medical appointments. He was a fine man and we shared many wonderful conversations about our military service and life in general. Edwin, may the Lord bless you and keep you in heaven. Bill Mentzer

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on God's promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ Dear family, I express my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one and I know it's so difficult to bear. But know that your heavenly Father understands your pain and He cares. He extends a hope to each and everyone and that hope is that you will see your loved one again. John 5:28, 29; Isaiah 25:8a
