“ Mr. Atlas and Miss Elaine's Family:
As the years past, Miss Elaine and I became more than neighbors. She helped me and I helped her. But what was so endearing and genuine about Miss Elaine was not only that she would help people, but she would also accept them inTO her home, and by so doing giving some individuals a second chance, n the case of others helping them grow up into mature adults and parents, and in the case of Aaron giving unconditional love.
I must say she earned the generous outpouring of love and respect that was so powerful and heart-warming at her service.

WELL DONE MISS ELAINE.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I pray you will find comfort from the Scriptures and Jesus' words:"Do not marvel at this, the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."(John 5:28,29) Until that blessed event takes place, may God grant you peace and comfort at this time.-Numbers 6:26; Matthew 5:4.

“ To The Family,

Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time. One of my favorite text says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.” (Job 14:14, 15).
