

Elizabeth Waples

July 20, 1935 - January 18, 2020

Elizabeth Waples departed this life on Saturday, January 18, 2020, at Beebe Medical Center, in Lewes, Delaware. Elizabeth Waples, aka Liz, daughter of the late Queen Elizabeth Jones and William Harrison, was born Saturday, July 20, 1935, in Jefferson County, Ashville, Florida.

Liz received her education in the Jefferson County School District. She received her diploma through Sussex Tech Adult Education in Georgetown, Delaware. As a child, she worked in greenhouses, which peaked her passion for flowers and gardening.

In the 1950's, Elizabeth moved to Delaware where she was employed by Dr. Carl Pierce and Avenue Restaurant in Rehoboth Beach, Delaware. In 1963, she was employed at Dupont Memorial House, which is a part of the Episcopal Diocese of Delaware. She remained there until her retirement on June 1, 1998. Because of her skilled cooking and love for people, Liz was appreciated and continues to be highly spoken of by all who loved her.

Elizabeth was a member of and served as the Mother of Jesus Is Church, West Rehoboth, Rehoboth Beach, Delaware.

Elizabeth married Augustus James Waples, Sr. in 1954, and in that reunion was seven children.

Elizabeth was preceded in death by her husband, Augustus James Waples, Sr.; mother, Queen Elizabeth Jones; father, William "Guy" Harrison; stepfather, Albert Ware and great-grandson, Ishmael Monshae Mackey.

Elizabeth leaves to cherish her memories, her children, William Bright of Milford, Delaware, Ursula Waples and Marilyn Nock Waples of Rehoboth, Delaware, Kim Duton of Georgetown, Delaware, Demporis Jones (Tracy) of Lewes, Delaware, Augustus James Waples, Jr. and Illya Waples of Rehoboth, Delaware; four brothers-in-law and three sisters-in-law, Ada Burton (Martin) of Rehoboth Delaware, Hurley Waples, Jr. (Estella) of Rehoboth, Delaware, Thomas Harmon (Emma), of Lewes, Delaware, William White of Lewes, Delaware; 23 grandchildren; 47 great-grandchildren, 11 great-great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, and cous