“ Mom, I thank God for allowing me to have the blessing of having you as my amazing, beautiful, loving and God fearing mother! You are my everything and if God had allowed me to just build my whole world around you that would of been alright!! I miss you terribly. Our talks multiple times during the day. I love that smile you had and when I think of you smiling I get tickled.. 🥰🥰🥰 you will forever be in my heart and I am honored that Bishop Evans had you anoint my head with oil that Sunday at church. I am here to carry on your legacy mom! To God be the glory in all that I am about to do. Cause, I am getting ready for something I've never seen and God's about to blow my mind!!! He is doing a great work in me!!! Your going to be proud. I love you eternally. Until I see you again. 🥰🥰🥰

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I am sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. I hope the family will find some comfort and strength in Jesus promise of the earthly resurrection(Acts 24:15)and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will mourn the death of a loved one.-Revelation 21:3,4;John 5:28,29;Luke 23:43. may GOD(Psalms 83:18)grant you peace and comfort now, during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ We at NCALL send our condolences and sympathy upon learning of Elizabeth's passing. I knew Elizabeth from her successful work to improve housing conditions in Bridgeville and western Sussex County. Elizabeth was a champion for decent, affordable housing. She had the dream of bringing housing opportunities to people in need in the Bridgeville area. She worked tirelessly in support of the development of three apartment communities that bear her name - Elizabeth Cornish Landing along Rt. 13 in Bridgeville. She surveyed hundreds of households door to door to prove a need existed for new housing. She got the word out for public hearings to make sure people in need were represented. She really felt the substandard and poor living conditions that so many people faced. She was an effective communicator that people trusted and listened to. Through her work, Elizabeth provided the strong community support required for the development and financing of the apartments. I had the pleasure of working with Elizabeth doing the packaging for USDA apartment financing. Without Elizabeth, the 60+ apartment units serving local people and farmworkers would not have been built and hundreds and hundreds of people over the years would not have enjoyed improved housing conditions.

Elizabeth was a wonderful, effective and tireless community organizer who had a dream, was persistent at it, and did everything she could to make it a reality - she was a wonderful instrument of God for whom we are very thankful.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. All of us have experienced the pain of death in some way sad to say. And, so, at difficult times like this we are confronted with the stark reality of how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). So, my wife and I send this condolence to you with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has comforted us with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God.

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason, as well as others, He promises to remove FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).

It is our hope that you NOT take our word for what has been written in this condolence; but that you read and accept what God's Word, the Bible says. We encourage you to please take a moment to read and meditate on all these referenced scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16). My wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
