Emanuel's Life

Emanuel Wilmore Wise, a resident from Princess Anne, Maryland, passed away at the age of sixty (60) on June 6, 2024. Emanuel was born on August 2, 1963 to George Henry Wise, Sr. (deceased) and Grace Virginia Wise at Peninsula General Hospital, now known as Tidal Health Regional Hospital in Salisbury, Maryland. He brought so much joy to the Wise Family.

Emanuel graduated from Pocomoke High School in Pocomoke City, Maryland in the Class of 1981. As a youth, he played the trumpet in the Pocomoke High School Marching Band and on the varsity soccer team.

In 1993, Emanuel dedicated his life to Christ and embarked on a new journey, forming lifelong connections and friendships within the Family of God.

Emanuel was a member of the Bread of Life Deliverance Outreach Ministries in Princess Anne, Maryland, where he was an Elder. Emanuel loved life and enjoyed witnessing the goodness of God to others.

As Emanuel grew in age and stature, his hobbies began to evolve. One of Emanuel's many hobbies was automobiles. He loved to clean and keep up with the newest models. He would watch car shows to see what was new on the market. His favorite car was his 1989 Chevrolet Cutlass.

Emanuel leaves cherished memories with: his mother, Grace Virginia Williams of Princess Anne, Maryland; aunt, Elise Yasin from Brooklyn, New York; his brother, George Henry Wise, Jr. (Shirley) of Baltimore, Maryland and his sisters, Mamie Elizabeth Saunders of Princess Anne, Maryland, Pearline Virginia Justice (Lurell) of Pocomoke City, Maryland and Denise Lynne Bice of Baltimore, Maryland. Emanuel is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family and friends.

Emanuel was preceded in death by his father, George Henry Wise, Sr., two brothers, Lawrance Wilmore Wise and Wallace Lee Wise, his sister, Shirley Mae Sykes and a brother-in-law, Elvin Saunders, Sr.
