

Emma Gordy

July 11, 1951 - May 24, 2013

Beloved sister and friend, Emma Gordy of Millsboro, Delaware departed her mortal life peacefully on Friday, May 24, 2013 at Beebe Hospital, Lewes, Delaware she was 61 years old.

Emma was born to the late Lee Roy Gordy, and late Edna Jeanette Hancock. Emma loved to knit and crochet, watch the Dukes of Hazards and The Walton's. She loved shopping and buying things over and over again. Emma also loved to cook for her friends and made sure she had plenty of candy, cakes and sodas when they came to visit. She always had coffee for Lee Roy and anxiously waited for Donald to visit on holidays.

Emma attend The Salvation Army Day Program for many years. She then transferred to Easter Seals Day Program and worked on the cleaning crew until she became ill. Emma did not like change much. She would give you a hard time if she did not want to do something. She did not make friends easily but once she found a friend she would do anything for them. She always looked out for her two brothers. Emma had a unique smile and personality that will be certainly missed.

Emma is survived by two brothers: Donald Gordy of Dover, Delaware and Lee Roy Weinberg of Georgetown, Delaware; daughter, Linda Taylor and her husband, Jason Taylor and one grandchild of Delaware; best friends, Harold Harmon and Jason Morris.

“ To The Family,
Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time. One of my favorite text says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.” (Job 14:14, 15).

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. I have personally experienced the heartache of losing loved ones in death. Death is an enemy to mankind and Almighty God has promised us that He is going to remove sickness, pain and death. (Revelations 21:3&4) So please take comfort in the scriptures in your time of grief and may the God of all Comfort bless and Strengthen your family at this time. Please accept my deepest sympathy.

“ I am sorry for your loss; please accept my sincere sympathy. I pray you will find comfort from the Scriptures. Jesus likens death to sleep(John 11:11-14) which when granted the power of the resurrection(Acts 24:15)will raise all those now sleeping in death in the graves; restoring them back to life with the hope of eternal life on the renewed Paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Just imagine the joy of being reunited with your love one again; until then may God comfort and bless the Gordy Family.-Matthew 5:4.
