“ Please accept my condolence. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time. Matthew 22:32, Jesus quoted God as saying: ‘I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.’ Then he continued: ‘He is the God, not of the dead, but of the living.’ I know that those words mean that those retained in God’s memory and will return in the resurrection.”

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. During your time of grief, please take comfort in the bible. Almighty God promises that He is going to remove death, sickness and pain in the near future. ( Revelation 21:3&4 )Also, in John 5:28&29 it tells us that there is going to be a resurrection from the dead. So you have a chance to be reunited with those you have lost in death. May your family take comfort in the bible and may you all be blessed.
