“ I Sit here with mixed emotions, Angry, sad, mad, and irritated that people would really not let me say goodbye to you Erika, But I know it was your time to go, you went so fast and I didn't get back in town in time to see you like I said I would do and that's what hurts the most.

I miss you dear friend the compassion and love you showed will be in my mind at all times, I will never find anyone like you crying will not help me and I will rejoice on the old times we shared. You taught me a lot good and bad but You were remarkable.

The world will not be the same without you, many hearts are broken and I know if you were still here you would ease their pain, there will be a brighter day and I'm waiting on it, but one thing that hurts me is I didn't get to say goodbye. So until the day that you rise again It's Shalawam my sister, my friend, and my family member, I want you to know that your presence in our family has been invaluable. Your wisdom, guidance and mentorship, have helped me to become the person I am today. Your absence will be deeply felt and your presence will be greatly missed.

Your Best Friend Gerald Dorsey

“ I will miss our conversations, you will always be in my heart. The memories we share I hold dear but, my most favorite memory is when I met you over 45 years ago on Cannon St. I knew then you were a good person and fun. We both got into trouble that day with our moms lol....never forgotten forever missed love you.
