

Ernest Purnell Coleman

July 10, 1944 - October 8, 2023

Ernest Purnell Coleman (Buck), son of the late Lee Coleman and Ethel Coleman, was born July 10, 1944, in Maryland, and departed this life on October 8, 2023 at his home.

He attended school at Maces Lane High, and that's where he discovered his passion for music. For many years he was a member of the First Commandments Gospel Singers, traveling all over the world.

He was preceded in death by his parents, and three brothers, Sherwood Coleman, Doralee Coleman, and Ruben Coleman.

He leaves to mourn him: his wife, Roberta (Bert) Coleman; special grandchildren, Tawanda Dennie, Shadonne Wongus, Tekita Wongus, Tiara Wongus, Terrell Cephas, Tavon Wongus and Tabrion Cephas; sisters, Dorothy Ann Johnson of Cambridge, MD and Ernestine (Bernie) Dickerson of Seaford, DE; sisters-in-law, Mary Colman, Dorothy McKnight and Floretta Austin; brothers-in-law, Terry Wongus, and Roger (Barbara) Wongus and a host of great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, and other family and friends.

Buck was a devoted member of the Baha'i Faith, an independent World Religion with its central principles being the Oneness of God, the Oneness of Religion, and the Oneness of Humanity. He and his wife, Roberta, hosted many events at and around their home in Vienna, MD that brought together people from all backgrounds and colors. These gatherings were always a source of joy and fellowship.

As a member of the First Commandment Gospel Singers, Buck helped organize performances at Baha'i gatherings up and down the East Coast including Toronto, Canada, Dover, Delaware, Savannah, Georgia and Orlando, Florida, among others. The group recorded two CD's ("Live in Toronto" and "We Have Come to Sing Praises") that found wide distribution among the worldwide Baha'i community and elsewhere. They were regular performers at Race Unity Day in Dover.

Along with his family and friends, the Baha'i community mourns the loss of this very special soul.
