“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. During your time of grief I'd like to share with you a comforting promise from God's Word, the Bible. Jesus said that those who have died will one day hear his voice and come back to life again as a result of the extraordinary love shown by means of the ransom sacrifice (John 5:28, 29). Along with the dead coming back to life again, Almighty God also promises what the conditions will be like when such ones are resurrected to life on earth. Please consider this wonderful promise that at that time God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, pain will no longer be, and death will be done away with forever (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11,29)! Examine and be comforted from these promises from God as you read them in your Bible. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you (2 Timothy 3:16, 17).
