“ I like to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. It was never God\u2019s intent that death should rule over mankind. - Romans 5:12; 1Corinthians 15:26, 55; God will do away with death. But for now God has provided hope-as stated at John 5:28, 29. During this most painful time please find comfort from God\u2019s word.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.

“ Lou and I became fast friends at CR playing ball. Hanging at his house, doing things we shouldn't, going to concerts, my boot camp going away party. I LOVE Lou, always will. Death may be final on Earth but its eternal with the Lord. I'll miss him here but the true peace has arrived for Louie...but it's hard.

“ He was one of my best friends since childhood. And since Derek Turner died. We have spoken almost every day. He always lit up the room with his smile. He did so much for me and all of my children over the years. He was always there whenever you needed him or just to to have fun. He had such a big heart. And such a good soul. We had so many good times over the years I cabt even begin to count. I will miss him so much and so will my kids. There\u2019s a special place in heaven for him with his kind and Generous heart. We all loved him. And are going to miss him so much. Rest In Peace Louie. See ya again Godspeed.
