

Ethel Marie Fletcher

February 18, 1933 - November 25, 2015

On November 25th, 2015, the Lord called Ethel home to rest. The Lord sent angels down to give Ethel her well-earned wings at the age of 82. The Lord said, no more pain, no more suffering, just the endless serenity of joy, peace and love.

Ethel Marie Fletcher was born in Hurlock, MD on February 18, 1933. She was the daughter of the late Charley and Catherine Parker of Hurlock, MD. As a teenager, she attended F. D. Sinclair High School, nurtured her younger brothers and worked on the farm. At the age of 16, she met the love of her life, Lester Fletcher. Upon graduation at the age of 18, she moved to Baltimore City to be with her love and soulmate, Lester. In 1951, they were joined in matrimony. Ethel established employment immediately after moving to Baltimore, working as a laborer for 20 years with Premium Bag Company. She later retired at the age of 65 from Jenkins Memorial.

Ethel's passion was family first. She loved her son, siblings, nieces, nephews, cousins and in-laws. Whenever she visited Hurlock, she made it her business to visit as many people as she could. If someone was sick, she was always there to help in any way she could. While in Baltimore, she expanded her family through wonderful neighbors and friends. She was lovingly known as "MOM" by all the neighborhood kids. Her second passion was fashion. Ethel loved to shop and took great pride in dressing to impress. She never left the house unless "Everything was in Order". Ethel also attended Christ United Methodist Church of Baltimore with her husband, Lester and was a lifelong member of Hurlock United Methodist Church.

She was preceded in eternal life by husband, Lester Fletcher; siblings, Emma Spry, Rose Lee Mapp, Alfred "Pet" Parker, Roger Parker and lifelong friend, Thelma Jordan Crosby "Cousin Sis". She is survived by her son, Blair "Anthony" Moody of Washington, DC; brothers, Charles Parker, Jr. of Federalsburg, MD, Tindley Parker of Hurlock, MD and Douglas Parker of Baltimore, MD; special nieces, Delphine Slaughter of Hurlock, MD, Lametha Elbert of Preston, MD and Maria Brooks of Jonesboro, GA; god-daughter, Audrey Lomax of Baltimore, MD; and a host of wonderful nieces and nephews.

“ *To the Fletcher & Parker Families:
You have my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. May God bring you peace and comfort during this difficult time.
Psalm 34:18 says: "The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit." God Bless.*

“ Extending deepest sympathy in this time of sorrow. We eagerly await the day when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out (John 5:28,29). Until that blessed day, may many fond memories of Ethel warm your heart.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. The bible gives us hope of being reunited with our loved ones again, at Acts 24:15. It tells us that "there is going to be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous". So please look forward to this time, and may your entire family be comforted and blessed at this time.
