May 23, 1951 - October 27, 2021

Ethel's Life

Ethel Mae Johnson, daughter of the late J.C. Allen and Leola Alls-Allen, was a former resident of Walterboro, South Carolina and most recently, a resident of Snow Hill, Maryland. She was born on Wednesday, May 23, 1951. At the age of seventy (70), she departed this earthly life bound for glory. Ethel Mae's passing on October 27, 2021 at Tidal Health Hospital in Salisbury, Maryland was as a result of complications from pneumonia.

For a number of years, she was a laborer for Perdue Poultry Plant. Her love for family and friends was second to none. In her spare time, she enjoyed crafting, sewing and gardening as her hobbies.

Those left to cherish precious memories of Ethel Mae Johnson's life are: her children, James Junior Johnson and Donnia Johnson; her siblings, Redell and Leroy Frost of Ridgeland, South Carolina, Christina Daniels Ford, Gloria Allen Moore and Iris Allen, all of Walterboro, South Carolina, Sharon and Melvin Edwards of Springlake, North Carolina, Nancy Brown Lee of Washington, DC, Greg and Cathy Allen of Atlanta, Georgia, Jimmy Green of Brooklyn, New York and Hermon Ford of New York, New York; a host of grandchildren; great grandchildren and a special friend, Wendell Timmons.

In addition to her parents, J.C. Allen and Leola Alls-Allen, Ethel Mae was also preceded in death by husband, Vimmie Lee Johnson, her siblings, Viola Singleton, Hannah Allen, Robert Alls, Clarence Alls, and Willie Allen and her son, Vernon Lee Johnson, who went on to glory on Wednesday, August 30, 1995.

Those we love must someday pass, beyond our present sight. Must leave us and the world we know, without their radiant light. But we know that like a candle, their lovely light will surely shine. To brighten up another place, more perfect, more divine. And in the realm of Heaven, where they shine so warm and bright. Our loved ones live forevermore, in God's eternal light.
