

Ethel L. Johnson (Thompson)

December 7, 1936 - December 30, 2020

On December 30, 2020, Ethel Louise Johnson, age 84, went home to be with our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Ethel was born December 7, 1936, to the late James and Mabel Thompson.

Ethel received her education through the Kent County Public School System and was a graduate of Garnett High School. Her employment consisted of working with Business Form, Campbell Soup and The Schlegal Corporation.

She enjoyed reading her Bible, singing in the choir, participating in various church programs and talking about her grandchildren. When she spoke about her grandchildren her entire face lit up and the smile that came upon her face was priceless.

Ethel accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior, at an early age through Mount Pleasant Methodist Church, in Fairlee, Maryland. She faithfully served in various capacities including, Choir Member, Finance Committee Member, Lay Speaker, Sunday School Teacher, Usher and Administrative Board Chair.

Ethel was preceded in death by her only son, Eric Thompson and eight siblings, Eugene, Ellsworth, Frances, James, Leroy, Hazel, Sylvia and Margaret.

Ethel leaves to cherish her memory, her loving husband, Ellsworth Johnson of Rock Hall, Maryland, two granddaughters, Ka-Shyrra Thompson (Rob) and Shekeyia Baker (Vergenus) both of Dover, Delaware; two great granddaughters, Isis Jacome and Amya Outlaw both of Dover, Delaware; brother, Haywood Thompson (Julia Ann) of Chestertown, Maryland; brothers-in-law, Douglas Johnson and Allen Johnson; sisters in-law, Bessie Beck, Charlotte Johnson and Rosemary Smith; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends.
