

Ethel Mae Williams

June 18, 1922 - September 22, 2020

Obituary

Ethel Mae Williams, at the age of ninety-eight (98), was called home to rest on Tuesday, September 22, 2020. She was born on June 18, 1922 to the late Fronney Baker and Henry Harmon in Somerset County, Maryland. She was preceded in death by her husband, the late Henry Williams.

After receiving her formal education in the Maryland public school system, Ethel Mae furthered her education by attending beautician school, law school and nursing school. She was employed at Peninsula General Hospital, from where she retired after thirty-four (34) years of service. She was a former member of Freedman's Methodist Church.

Ethel Mae's greatest love was her grandchildren and with that led to the love of all who connected through them. She was an exceptional cook and had a wonderful sense of humor. She was always known for telling her life stories, joking and encouraging others.

Precious memories will be cherished by: two children, Morris William White, Sr. (Johnnie Ruth Chapman) of Salisbury, Maryland and Phyllis Dickerson (John Dickerson, Sr.) of Tyaskin, Maryland; four stepchildren, Famina Bowyer (William Bowyer), Henry Fitchett, Clarence Cullen (Linette Cullen) and Karen

Cullen; seven grandchildren, Michelle Whittington Milam, Charles Whittington, Vanessa White (Vance Rolley), Sheila Griffith (David Griffith), Morris White, Jr. (Lytania White), John Dickerson, Jr. (Cathy Dickerson), Donte Dickerson (Maxine Igwedinma) and Victor Bermudez who she adopted and raised as her grandson; sixteen great grandchildren; nine great-great grandchildren; three cousins, Leonard Horsey, Sr., Rosie Hall and a special cousin, Myrtle Scott Williams and a host of other relatives and friends.

Ethel Mae was preceded in death by her sister Geraldine and brother Tommy, step daughter Shirley White and special daughter-in-law Linda White.

She will be truly missed...

Lovingly Submitted ~ The Family