

Eugene Peet

May 13, 1937 - September 3, 2019

Eugene Peet was born on May 13, 1937, in Stevensville, Maryland. He was one of eight children, born to the late John and Della (Meadows) Peet.

Eugene attended Centreville High School in Maryland.

Eugene had many jobs which included farming, waterman, bricklayer, and truck driver. After moving to Delaware, he was employed at DuPont in Seaford, Delaware. When he became ill in 2014, he stopped driving trucks and began to attend sales.

Eugene became a member of the Church of the Lord Jesus Christ of the Apostolic Faith in July of 1965. He was devoted to Christ, the Church, and the saints and always willing to help wherever he could. He was a member for 54 years. He was always happy and eager to come to church, which was his greatest joy. Eugene was the Young People's Division president for many years and enjoyed mentoring the youth and raising finances. He loved to sing and was a help to the choir in Philadelphia for many years, along with Lord Deacon John Thomas. While helping with the choir, he had a saying "dear hearts". He loved people and would hold a conversation with anyone who would listen to him. Eugene was a man of faith and prayers. He pressed his way to the very end, saying, "Thank God for Jesus Christ. God Bless".

Eugene was married to the late Leatha (Baker) Peet. They raised two daughters, Diane Jenkins and the late Eugenia Peet; and a nephew, Chester Cornish. They also had a son, Jackie Peet, who preceded him in death.

In addition to his son, daughter and his first wife, Eugene was preceded in death by three brothers, Clarence, Nathaniel and Eddlee; and four sisters, Catherine, Marie, Evelyn and Doris.

Eugene is survived by his wife, Edith Burris Waples Peet, whom he loved dearly; daughter, Diane Jenkins; two grandsons, Jermaine Jenkins and Wayne Peet; two granddaughters, Yolanda Jenkins and Lashawnia Drummond; a favorite great-granddaughter, Jada; great-grandson, Zion; special godson, Nathaniel Gaines, whom he loved dearly; many special friends of the brotherhood; Bishop Omega; and so many more.

Tribute Wall

“ You are in our thoughts and prayers.”

From Lord, Joshua and sister Cynthia Banks - September 06, 2019 at 11:04 AM