

Eula McKinnie

March 28, 1938 - November 17, 2013

Eula B. (Pete) McKinnie was born to the late Wallace Manning and Minnie Morrison on March 28, 1938. Eula departed this life peacefully on November 17, 2013. She was the third child of five.

She attended the public schools of Quitman, GA. She married the late Joe Nathan McKinnie on February 18, 1956 and to this union ten children were born.

Eula moved with Joe to Delaware in 1959 and worked at Draper Canning Company for a few years. She began to babysit children in her home. At one time, Eula was the sitter for about 21 children. She would see the older children off to school as she kept smaller ones and babies in the home.

When the family moved to Dorchester, MA in 1969, she continued to babysit children until the family decided to move back to Delaware in 1980. Eula loved children and their parents also loved Eula. They were heart broken!

when the family decided to leave Massachusetts.

Eula accepted the Lord and joined Mt. Zion Holy Church in 1987. Eula loved the Lord and over the past few years she would say at different times “I am tired now and ready to go home to be with the Lord.”

She was preceded in death by her husband, Joe N. McKinnie in 2006. She is survived by her five children: Joe McKinnie, Jr. (Dawn) of Palm Desert, CA; Patricia Lewis (Vincent) of Milton, DE; Michelle George (Steve) of

Sacramento, CA; Eddie McKinnie of Portland, OR and Roxanne McKinnie

(Kenny) of Lewes, DE. She also leaves to cherish fond memories two
