

Evelyn Lee Peters

June 14, 1924

Evelyn Lee Peters (Jason), affectionately known as “Mom”, daughter of the late Edna Pearl Brown and Henry Mainjoy Jason, was born on June 14, 1924 in Dover Delaware, and transitioned on Saturday, June 30, 2018, at Heartland Hospice House.

Evelyn received her early education in the Kent County School District and later graduated from Howard High School. She also attended Delaware State College, which is now known as Delaware State University. Evelyn was the proud granddaughter of William C. Jason, the first Black President of Delaware State College.

Evelyn was employed by the General Foods Company, which is now known as Kraft Foods. Later in life she joined the Modern Maturity Center and was a volunteer for over 20 years. She enjoyed giving her time to help others.

She was a member of Whatcoat United Methodist Church, under the leadership of former Pastor Alice Ervin.

Evelyn loved to socialize and entertain family gatherings at her home. She loved everyone but didn't mind telling you what was on her mind. She did not bite her tongue.

Evelyn was predeceased by two sisters, Edna "Creepy" Collins and Hilda "Auntie" Branton.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her children, Arthur "Junior" Cooper (Abria), William "Butch" Jason, Sr. and Aaron "Pete" Peters (Verneal); 19 grandchildren; 49 great-grandchildren; 12 great-great grandchildren; 1 great-great-great grandchild, and a host of family members and many friends.

She will be greatly missed by all who loved her.
